CIVIL ACTION NO. 1:24-CV-270-DAE

ORDER GRANTING JOINT MOTION TO STAY PROCEEDINGS

Senate Bill 4 (88th Leg. (4th Special Session)) (“S.B. 4”) was preliminarily enjoined by this Court on February 29, 2024. That injunction remains in effect.

Before the Court is the Joint Motion of all Parties to Stay Proceedings Pending Appeal. While this Court had no intention of proceeding while the Fifth Circuit reviews this Court’s preliminary injunction, the Court finds it proper to use its inherent authority to stay this action until the Fifth Circuit rules on the preliminary injunction.

Therefore, after consideration of the motion, record, and relevant authorities, the Court hereby GRANTS the Motion and STAYS all deadlines and proceedings in this case pending the Fifth Circuit’s decision on the district court’s preliminary injunction order entered in the related case United States v. Texas, et.al., No. 1:24-cv-00008-DAE, or any party's request to lift the stay.

SO ORDERED this 7th day of May, 2024.

Senior United States District Judge
